

We are pleased to introduce you to a new product designed for egg roll storage and packaging - 200g Egg Roll Tin Box. This tin box is carefully crafted by our China Tin Box Manufacturer. It is not only functional and practical, but also has a beautiful appearance design, which is very suitable for the food packaging market.

High-quality materials and precise design

This egg roll tin box is made of high-quality tinplate to ensure its durability. The characteristics of tinplate make the tin box not only have good moisture resistance, but also effectively maintain the freshness of food. The size of the tin box is 130x95x190 mm, which is tailored for the storage of 200g egg rolls and can perfectly accommodate and protect your delicious egg rolls.

Diverse color options

In order to meet the preferences of different consumers, we have specially launched two colors for you to choose from: bright yellow and passionate red. These two colors are not only full of vitality, but also symbolize auspiciousness and good luck, which are very suitable for festive gift packaging. Whether for personal use or as a gift, this tin box can add a festive atmosphere to your egg rolls.

Combination of practicality and beauty

In addition to practicality, the appearance design of this egg roll tin box is also very sophisticated. Its simple and generous shape combined with bright colors makes it not only a food packaging container, but also a home decoration. Whether placed in the kitchen, living room or dining table, it will add a touch of color to your home environment.
