

As a **custom printed octagonal tin box manufacturer**, we specialize in providing cost-effective custom printed octagonal tin box solutions. We utilize 0.23mm thick food-grade tinplate to ensure structural strength and meet safety and environmental standards, making them suitable for direct contact with food or gifts. Advanced CMYK + spot color printing technology ensures precise reproduction of brand logos, complex patterns, gradient colors, and even subtle textures. From basic sizes of 169mm to 169mm, and custom sizes, and from simple monochrome printing to full-color creative designs, we offer full customization of printing content and craftsmanship tailored to your brand's tone and usage scenario, making each tin box a brand's "mobile business card."

As a **custom shaped tin box supplier**, we understand the importance of shape customization for product differentiation, and this octagonal tin box exemplifies our customization capabilities. In addition to the classic octagonal shape, we can develop a variety of custom shapes, including round, square, and special shapes, to meet the personalized packaging needs of various industries. Take this 16916970mm octagonal tin box, for example. Its edge curvature, opening and closing structure, and internal partitions can all be adjusted as needed. Combined with the stable texture of 0.23mm tinplate, it ensures both practicality and visual appeal. Combined with the flexible adaptability of CMYK + spot color printing, we offer custom tin box solutions that perfectly balance form and function, whether for holiday gift packaging, high-end snack storage, or cultural and creative product display.

As a **custom octagonal tin box wholesaler**, we possess the core advantages of mass production and stable supply, providing cost-effective wholesale services for custom octagonal tin boxes to various businesses. Our standardized production process ensures the dimensional accuracy (16916970mm), material consistency (0.23mm tinplate), and printing quality (CMYK + spot color process) of each batch of tin boxes, ensuring the stability of bulk purchases. We support batch customization, ranging from a few hundred to tens of thousands. We can flexibly adjust production cycles and quotes based on the customer's purchase volume to meet the wholesale needs of various channels, including chain brands, e-commerce platforms, and offline supermarkets. Whether upgrading product packaging through customized tin boxes or selling them as independent cultural and creative peripherals, our professional wholesale services can help customers reduce costs and improve efficiency.
