

1. Core Material & Build Quality

- Material: Made of premium tinplate, the custom small metal tin boxes boast excellent durability, corrosion resistance, and recyclability, making them an eco-friendly and long-lasting packaging choice.
- Thickness: Fixed at 0.23mm, the tinplate thickness strikes a balance between sturdiness (to protect internal items) and lightweight design (for easy transportation and handling).

2. Customization Capabilities

- Structural & Size Customization: As a professional Custom Small Metal Tin Box Manufacturer, we provide fully personalized structural designs—whether you need square, rectangular, round, or special-shaped tin boxes. Dimensions are completely tailored to your needs, from compact sizes for small gadgets to larger capacities for bulk items.
- Printing & Aesthetic Customization: Equipped with CMYK + Spot Color printing technology, the tin boxes deliver vibrant, high-definition graphics that accurately replicate brand logos, patterns, or promotional messages. This printing method ensures color consistency and long-term fade resistance, enhancing product shelf appeal.

3. Production & Sourcing Advantage

- Production Location: All custom small metal tin boxes are manufactured in Guangdong, China—a region renowned for advanced packaging production infrastructure and strict quality control standards.
- Reliable Sourcing Partners: As a leading China Custom Small Metal Tin Box Factory, we adhere to international production norms, from raw material selection (food-grade tinplate for edible products) to final inspection, ensuring each tin box meets global quality benchmarks.
- Local Supply Expertise: As a trusted Guangdong Custom Small Metal Tin Box Supplier, we leverage the region's efficient logistics network to offer timely delivery, whether for small-batch orders (ideal for startups) or large-scale bulk production (for established brands).

4. Application Scenarios

These custom small metal tin boxes are versatile for multiple industries:

- Food & Beverage: Storage for candies, tea, coffee, or snacks (airtight design preserves freshness).
- Cosmetics & Personal Care: Packaging for lip balms, essential oils, or small skincare tools.
- Gifts & Souvenirs: Custom-printed tin boxes for promotional gifts, holiday favors, or collectibles.
- Electronics & Hardware: Protection for small components, USB drives, or jewelry.
